E100 BIBLE READING CHALLENGE

This week we begin week 18 of our 20 week Bible reading challenge. The theme of our readings this week is Paul to the Leaders. In our readings this week we see Paul writing to train and encourage the leaders of the early church, primarily Timothy. For Paul, the future of the church was all about finding good people to lead it. Maybe you don't think of yourself as a leader. Well, we all can influence others for God's purposes. If that's true, Paul has some good advice this week for us all to discover.

Welcome to Elim

Elim Tabernacle traces its roots to the Pentecostal Revival that began in St. John's nearly a century ago - on Easter Sunday, 1911.

We are part of the Pentecostal Assemblies of Newfoundland and Labrador - a fellowship of 130 churches. Our sister fellowship, the Pentecostal Assemblies of Canada numbers 1000 churches.

The Pentecostal denomination has flourished in this century - and now numbers half a billion worldwide.

In the Old Testament we read that the word Elim refers to a 'place of refreshing' - an oasis of palm trees and sparkling springs of water in the midst of a dry and barren desert.

That is what we want our church, our congregation, to be to all who enter our doors - a place of refreshing, where those in need can find shelter - where those who thirst spiritually can find the Living Water of the Word of God. An oasis in the midst of a troubled world; a place of ministry, of rest, of revival.

We welcome the ministry of the Holy Spirit through the expression of worship, and other spiritual gifts. We hope that your fellowship with us is meaningful and uplifting. Our prayer is that you would always find a place of sanctuary at Elim.

Sincerely,

Russell Bartlett

About Elim

OUR FAITH is centered in the historic Christian doctrine. It is Biblically-based, and adheres to the great creeds of the Christian Church - such as the Apostles Creed. Feel free to view our Statement of Faith online at www.elim.nf.ca.

OUR MESSAGE reflects the Person and Work of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. As evangelical Christians, we believe in salvation - a personal and restorative relationship with God - based on the redemptive gospel and sacrifice of Christ.

OUR MISSION extends around the world, as we commit to world evangelism - sharing the Good News of the Gospel in other countries - through prayer - and the financial support of our missionary families.

OUR WORSHIP is enriched by the dynamic presence and power of the Holy Spirit, who we believe to be the third member of the Holy Trinity. We teach and experience the fullness of the Spirit as received by Christians in the first century.

The Old, Old Story Radio Broadcast

The Old, Old Story radio broadcast first aired in 1952 - making it one of the longest-running programs in the province's communications history. Currently commanding close to an impressive 40,000 listeners every Sunday via the VOXM Radio network.
